War Food Administration,
Summary to WFO-89 Termination.

War Food Administration has terminated War Food Order 89, an enabling order which authorized quota restrictions for peanuts and peanut butter. The order was issued in December, 1943, super-seding Food Distribution Order 78, as protection against possible future peanut shortages, but never was put into operation, and its continuation is considered unnecessary. The termination is effective as of January 4, 1945, and brings to a total of 69 the number of War Food Orders terminated.
